

I am writing to register my opposition to Sinclair Broadcast Group's decision to run an anti-Kerry "documentary" shortly before the election. This is a prime example of how Big Media is suffocating journalism and democracy itself. This decision to pre-empt regular programming to air a program that is so clearly designed to influence the election, should be considered a grave violation of FCC rules which require local stations to serve the public interest. Why are they not requiring their local stations to show Fahrenheit 911 at the same time? The reason is obvious. This is partisan politics at its worse under the guise of journalism. Please do something about this.
